

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 8, 2010

Mike Carrigan, Jr. Joins Wallace Welch & Willingham Inc. as Marine Account Executive

Third Generation Marine Veteran Brings Experience, Expertise to Position.

SAINT PETERSBURG, FL- Wallace Welch & Willingham Marine Insurance, one of Florida's largest marine insurance agencies, announces the appointment of Mike Carrigan, Jr. to the position of Marine Account Executive. Carrigan will focus on dealer and manufacturer marine insurance clients.

A third generation marine industry veteran, Carrigan's vast ownership and management experience encompasses 20 years in the sector. Most recently, he held posts as sales and marketing director and regional sales manager for Scout Boats in Summerville, South Carolina. Previously, he was sales manager for Tarpon Springs-based Stamas Yacht.

"We are excited to have Mike join our seasoned marine insurance team," says Wallace Welch & Willingham Senior Vice President Steve Cunningham. "His wealth of experience in the marine industry, coupled with our agency's expertise in marine insurance, will greatly benefit our clients."

Carrigan graduated from the University of South Florida in Tampa and holds a bachelor's degree in English. He and his family reside in Sarasota, where he enjoys boating and fishing.

Wallace Welch & Willingham (WWW) has served as a trusted insurance partner for both individual and business clients since 1925. With the merger of Tampa Bay Underwriters and Wiseley Marine Insurance, WWW has grown into one of Florida's largest marine insurers as well as one of the largest employee-owned insurance agencies in the United States. WWW is a client-focused company founded on the values of integrity, accountability, success and passion, and innovative products and services form its company cornerstone. For more information regarding marine insurance, contact (800) 783-5085 or visit www.marineins.com.

###