Dania Marine Flea Market Sets Record

Record crowds and great weather combined to produce four days of brisk sales for more than 300 vendors at this year's Dania Marine Flea Market. Each morning there were long lines of eager boating and fishing enthusiasts waiting for the gates to open so the search could begin for those once a year bargains. Jennifer Dudas, Marine Flea Market general manager and vice president of Al Behrendt Enterprises said, "Each day our numbers increased over last year and Saturday's crowd was so large that two overflow parking lots were fully utilized."

For past 32-years, marine manufacturers, distributors, dealers and marine related businesses have found the Dania Marine Flea Market to be 'the place' to sell all sorts of new and used marine equipment as well as 'scratch and dent' merchandise and products that are overstocked or obsolete.

Dudas said, "Vendors know that visitors to the Marine Flea Market are 'buyers' in the truest sense of the word and this year's four-day event had a record 329 vendors. The number of Flea Market visitors swelled by 6% over 2009. While we have no way of tracking vendor sales, the overwhelming consensus of vendors with whom I spoke believe this was the best Dania Marine Flea Market ever."

The Dania Marine Flea Market is a once-a-year event that will return to Dania Jai Alai in 2011 March 17th through the 20th.
